

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, President Reagan has signed legislation calling for the convening of a national White House Conference on Small Business in 1986; and,

WHEREAS, Preceding the national conference will be a series of state conferences to discuss issues of concern to small business, and to elect delegates to the national conference; and,

WHEREAS, The purposes of the White House Conference are to: increase public awareness of small business and its role as a major job creator, identify small business problems, develop recommendations for government action on small business issues, and to review the status of the recommendations adopted at the first White House Conference in 1980; and,

WHEREAS, Small business is the foundation of the South Dakota economy, providing employment for many of the State's citizens thus earning the full support of this administration; and,

WHEREAS, The South Dakota State White House Conference on Small Business will be held on November 5 and 6 at the Holiday Inn City Centre, Sioux Falls, South Dakota:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 6, 1985, as in South Dakota, and I urge all eligible small business owners, partners or corporate officers to participate in the White House Conference, to enthusiastically represent South Dakota and make their views known to Congress and the President, and to help set the agenda for the future of small business in South Dakota and the nation.

WHITE HOUSE CONFERENCE ON SMALL BUSINESS DAY
